3rg's new leadership & management course has been specifically designed to provide essential skills required within the private security industry.

The course meets the needs of all areas of security where Leadership & Management are required, including Close Protection, Surveillance & Investigation, Venue / Event Security and Maritime security.

Maritime Security – It is now common practice that PMSC prefer to employ British team leaders alongside non-British operators. Within the course, students will also receive the internationally recognised Personnel in Designated Security Duties (PDS) certificate, as required by the STCW Convention (as amended in Manila 2010) Regulation VI/6

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Anyone who is already working within the security industry and would like to progress their career.
- Former military or police who did not gain leadership or management skills within their previous employment.
- Anyone who requires Leadership & Management training for a Operation's Manager role.

Successful students will receive a Level 3 Certificate in Leadership and Management
