

Covert Surveillance/

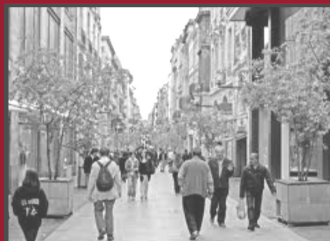

Excellence In Security

Professional Investigators

3rg utilise their experience and expertise to deliver this Pearson Level 3 Professional Investigators Award. Students are instructed in the necessary skills for gathering evidence by covert means and to become a proficient surveillance operator.

This realistic training is carried out through supervised surveillance exercises and is further enhanced with lessons on legal issues centred around evidence gathering, photography and vehicle tracking.

For further information on 3rg Security Training courses email: training@3rg.co.uk web: www.3rg.co.uk

Covert Surveillance course

Who should attend?

3rg Covert Surveillance course is designed for anyone 18 years or over, wanting to gain experience to work within the Surveillance industry—there are no other pre-requisites for this qualification.

Outcomes

Students will gain a well-respected industry qualification and a good working knowledge of the surveillance industry, along with a Level 3 qualification in professional Investigation, awarded by Pearson.

Course content

- Planning
- Covert Communications
- Foot Surveillance
- Surveillance Triggers
- Mobile Surveillance
- Surveillance Briefings & Debriefings
- Anti Surveillance
- Evidence Gathering & Law
- Codes of Practice and RIPA 2000
- Vehicle Tracking.

Assessment

The course includes a comprehensive handbook, assessment by on-screen testing (2 exams) and certification.

Requirements

There is no requirement to have previous security training or background in order to book this course.

Course Duration: 5 Days

Cost: £600.00

Location: 3rg Poole Training Centre

For further information on 3rg Security Training courses email: training@3rg.co.uk web: www.3rg.co.uk

